THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS

Large Number of Communications Received, One of Which Was from Captain Rodges of the Battleship Kearsarge, Praising Work of Y. M. C. A.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO IN-VITE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT TO PENSACOLA—MATTER OF ORGANIZATION WAS ALSO DIS-CUSSED AND COMMITTEE AP-POINTED.

A regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held at 12 o'clock noon, on yesterday, President John E.
Stillman presiding and a large number of members of the organization present.

General Secretary J. H. Sherrill, of the Pensacola branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, submitted a detailed report of the work of the naval branch Y. M. C. A., during the presence of the North Atlantic fleet in Pensacola harbor last spring, which showed a deficit of $115.00.

Attached to and a part of this report was a letter from Captain Raymond C. Rodges of the U. S. S. Kearsarge highly complimenting the Y. M. C. A. upon its work on behalf of the enlisted men of the navy during the fleet's rendezvous at Pensacola.

Upon motion duly seconded, a committee of three was appointed to raise by subscription the deficit of $115.00 in the funds of the naval branch, reported by Secretary Sherrill.

The matter of the necessity for the organization of a military company was brought to the attention of the meeting, and the following committee was appointed to take such steps as may be necessary to secure such an organization, viz: Col. R. M. Cary, C. C. Goodman, Capt. B. M. Bushnell, J. E. Williams and W. C. Jones.

The deleterious effect upon the interests of Pensacola of the horde of grafters and other objectionable and disolute characters who gravitate to Pensacola when the fleet is in port was thoroughly discussed and a resolution adopted petitioning the city authorities to strictly enforce the ordinances now in force to protect the city against the invasion of these parasites, and if existing ordinances are not sufficient to accomplish this end, that more stringent ordinances be adopted.

A resolution was unanimously adopted extending an invitation to President Roosevelt to include Pensacola in the itinerary of his southern trip in October, and the following committee was appointed to prepare and present a formal invitation to the president to-wit: Messrs. J. E. Stillman, A. Greenhut, J. C. Avery, W. A. Blount, W. S. Keyser, J. Ed. O'Brien, W. C.
Jones and Wm. H. Knowles.

Following the transaction of some routine business the meeting adjourned.

PENSACOLA AND CENTURY

played on the holiday now being given by the merchants of the city, will be as a result of the closing. The game will be between the Pensacola and Century teams, it having been arranged last night over the long distance phone.

The line-up of the Century team is not known, but the following will be on the Pensacola team:

Touart, second base; P. Caro, third base; C. Touart, short stop; Hendricks, left field; Bell, center field; Minor, right field.

MAYOR BLISS INTERVIEWED

Says He Thinks He Acted Properly in Removing Comptroller Morgan.

MAVERS THAT CITY'S AFFAIRS HAVE BEEN CONDUCTED IN A VERY LOOSE AND UNBUS-INESSLIKE WAY.

A Journal representative called on Mayor Bliss yesterday evening and asked for a statement regarding the removal of Comptroller Morgan and his re-instatement by the council.
"What do you think of the result of the proceedings of the council today," was asked?

"I hardly know what to say," replied Mayor Bliss. "I feel that I have done my duty as required of me by law and I confess I was somewhat surprised at the final action. It was simply another case where the results were changed by the majority for reasons best known to themselves, refusing to vote."
"Did you think your grounds for removal of Mr. Morgan sufficient to warrant the approval of the council?"
"I certainly did. The law makes it my duty to see that all other officers do their duty. In case they do not do their duty I have the power to remove them from office. Mr. Morgan is an officer appointed by the mayor and the mayor has the power to remove him from office. Mr. Morgan absent-ed himself from the city without asking leave. He delegated his authority to another without authority of law.
His accounts were kept, bills were audited, vouchers approved and warrants drawn by his appointee, all of which has no sanction of law. It would be a parallel case if I were to leave the city and appoint some one to act as mayor in my stead during my absence. In addition to willfully absenting himself from his official duties, I find Mr. Morgan has drawn warrants which I consider illegal and he, above all other officers is in duty bound to protect the city's interests. As this matter is to be probed further I do not care to say anything for publication on this point."

"Did you regard it Mr. Morgan's duty to see that bills were correct before he drew warrants for them?" was asked.

"I certainly did. The law so declares. If every officer is to endorse a bill because some one else has done so, or because it is the custom then there is no wonder that public affairs get into bad shape sometimes."
"What do you think will be the effect of the council's action?"
"I do not know," replied the mayor.
"It practically says to the comptroller:
'You may leave the city without the mayor's permission when you please; you may go where you please and stay as long as you please. He has no right to remove you from office for neglect of duty. The law is a dead letter.
But, notwithstanding this, I believe the incident will have a salutary effect on public affairs. It appears that a great many things have been done very loosely, in fact I was very much surprised at the loose way in which the business affairs of the city have been transacted. No business man would consent to it in his business for a moment. The only thing I regret about the matter is that it cannot be referred to the people for approval.
I feel assured that I would receive a greater endorsement than I did on June 6th."

JOE VICKERY CASE REMANDED

MAN WHO WAS CONVICTED IS TO BE TRIED AGAIN, AS SUPREME COURT HAS REVERSED DECISION OF ESCAMBIA COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.

Information was received in Pensacola yesterday to the effect that the supreme court of Florida had reversed the decision of the circuit court of this county in the case of Joseph Vickery, and the case had been remanded back for another trial.

Vickery, it will be remembered, was tried before the circuit court, Judge Palmer presiding, upon the charge of murder it being alleged that he shot and killed a negro at Century a few months prior. The case was an interesting one, and the jury returned a verdict of manslaughter, after being out for a number of hours. Attorneys Stokes and Douville represented the defendant in the trial and when the verdict was rendered gave notice of an appeal to the supreme court.

Vickery was sentenced by the court to serve seven years at hard labor, but owing to the appeal he has been in the county jail since that time awaiting the decision of the superior court.

The case will now come up at the next term of the criminal court.

SACRED STONES.

Some That Claim to Mark the Center of the Universe.

The sacred black stone of the Manchu dynasty of Chinese in Mukden is the center of the universe, according to old Chinese superstitions, and added venerability comes to Mukden from the graves of the emperors near by.

The Doring in Lassa, Tibet, is another center of the universe, which, according to the Tibetan priests, is shaped exactly like the shoulder blade of a sheep. All distances are measured from it, and it is very sacred.

Another center is the kaaba, in Mecca, a dirty black stone set into the wall of the most sacred mosque and polished every year by the lips of thousands of worshippers. The Arabic word for stone, "hajar," appears in Scriptural writings as a proper name. The Mecca pilgrimage is a "haj," and those who have taken it are known as "hajji." Even so sane a people as the ancient Greeks came pretty near worshipping a stone—the "omphalos," or center of the earth, at Delphi. The Romans set up a stone of great consequence in Rome, but for purposes of measurement, not worship, and so the "London stone" of today is used.—London Telegraph.
